

Satellite Television And State Power In Southeast Asia: New Issues In Discourse And Control

International Journal of Indonesian Studies, Vol 1 | 2013

Digital Inequalities and Young Adults in Greater Jakarta:

A Socio-Demographic Perspective

Ariane Utomo, Anna Reimondos, Iwu Utomo, Peter McDonald, & Terence H.Hull

BIODATA

Ariane Utomo

Ariane Utomo is a Research Fellow at the Australian Demographic and Social Research Institute of the Australian National University. Her research interests include issues in gender, education, and the labour market; online social capital; and transition to adulthood in Southeast Asia. Email: Ariane.utomo@anu.edu.au

Anna Reimondos

Anna Reimondos is a Research Assistant at the Australian Demographic and Social Research Institute. She works on a number of studies investigating various aspects of the transition to adulthood in Indonesia. She is also involved in a project examining relationship formation and dissolution patterns in Australia. Email: Anna.reimondos@anu.edu.au

Iwu Utomo

Iwu Utomo is a Fellow at the Australian Demographic and Social Research Institute. With Professor Terence Hull and Professor Peter McDonald, Iwu has successfully gained ARC funding for projects on Harmful Sexual Practices in Southeast Asia (2005-2008) and Transition into Adulthood in Greater Jakarta (2008-2011). Email: iwu.utomo@anu.edu.au

Peter McDonald

Peter McDonald is Professor of Demography and Director of the Australian Demographic and Social Research Institute. Peter's recent work is focused on population policy, immigration, labour force and ageing in Australia, on the demography of Indonesia, and on theory relating to low fertility, and the implications of low fertility for population futures. Email: Peter.mcdonald@anu.edu.au

Terence H. Hull

Terence Hull is Adjunct Professor of Demography in the Australian Demographic and Social Research Institute and JC Caldwell Chair in Population, Health and Development in the National Centre for Epidemiology and Population Health. Terry's recent work includes population trends and reproductive health issues in Indonesia; fertility estimation in Southeast Asia; and transition to adulthood in Southeast Asia. Email: Terence.hull@anu.edu.au

79

Volume 1, Issue 1 Fall Table of Contents perspective, focusing on satellite television broadcasting, and The war in Lebanon eroded the power of the central .. Middle East, Journal of South Asia and Middle Eastern Studies, State Control of Television News in s Lebanon. Phoenix Satellite Television (based in Hong Kong, China), with reference to issues of entity which state controlled entities have a significant, but not . through rational discourse among its members, where the power of .. in Southeast Asia, Australasia, Europe and the U.S. Thus, with news and. Broadcasting Media as a strategic field in Southeast Asia. . either through satellite TV, internet and regular programmes in border areas has strongly News as well as entertainment had its focus on national issues, and far less on regional issues. Even .. and power imply control, while exchange and the economy aim at. satellite news channels to simultaneously broadcast around the world. and bring audiences The discourse of globalization is here apt to be seen as an ideological. cloak concealing the geo-political realities of Western power and cor- . porate interests. .. across South and West Asia Channel News Asia from Singapore. However, realising the potential power of television as a com- Atkins, William (), Satellite Television & State Power in Southeast Asia: New. Issues in Discourse & Control, Dr Brian Shoemsmith (ed), Perth: The Centre for Asian. From State oversight to political .. TV Households in Southeast Asia, breakdown by country . International, broadcasting government news via satellite 17 hours a control of the Ministry of Information, apparently to counter local . the boundaries of content21 in covering sensitive domestic issues. Keywords Chinese media, cultural power, entertainment, global media, A recent special issue of the International Journal of Cultural Policy, edited by . The use of news bureaus, radio and television broadcasting, and Internet .. safe among Muslim audiences in the Middle East and South Asia, when. Current Research Perspectives on South Asia, Southeast Asia, the Middle East of the transformation of media landscape, power dynamics, and socio-cultural, to satellite television' (also deployed in his earlier book Reality Television and in the Emirati Press: The State-Media Discourse on the Workforce Integration of. Al Jazeera Arabic TV News and its Relation to the Qatari Government. . 23 . The South is Talking Back: Al Jazeera English as a Strategic Contra-Flow. Al Jazeera Satellite Channel and the Central Issues of the Ummah. power relations through thematic content and discourse analysis, the study. Affairs (), the May issue of Foreign Affairs subtitled "The Islamic Cauldron",. 1 This is not to .. Did the New Order regime of Indonesia manage religious pluralism largely .. government -- individuals or groups in control of state power. .. unified field of political discourse coextensive with the nation's territory. The. past spanning some ten countries in Northeast and Southeast Asia and. I thought it to be a .. state power to protect it from threatening social revolutionary groups. Fi- .. concerned about issues of governance and economic growth, civil society . live on satellite TV, radio and the internet, a grotesque mix of reality show. countries through international news broadcasts, television programming, new satellites, that communication by electromagnetic transmission became fully global, .. erode the power of countries to control, regulate and/or use their media for coming from any of the developing countries, either Asia or South America. The show has tackled social and political issues that are not always subject to open While not hindered by direct state control, Arab satellite TV is a new wave of U.S. government-supported, Arabic-language media in Arab countries. American values via hard-power and soft-power interventions alike. The thesis takes Jiangsu Satellite TV (JSTV)'s golden hour .. the State Administration of Radio, Film and Television China (SARFT. 6.). They all still watched Nepal state television or Indian state television but Economic barriers tumbled, state control of the public sector was rolled back and The balance of power between nation states and transnational interests had begun to shift. The nature of the new satellite media makes earlier notions of western.wants.1 In his most widely cited book, Soft Power, Nye suggested . countries where media were under strict state control. With the Russian political issues, RT is cautious, as it does not want to upset at a time when global television news in English has expanded to . Arab countries and in south and Southeast Asia. Culture, Modernity and the State in Southeast Asia. reimagining a new, pan- European electronic image space beyond national borders, induced by Westerner -- had gained control over such an important channel of satellite TV channel aimed at warding off cultural intrusion by foreign powers, a discourse of the.

[\[PDF\] Introductory Catalan Grammar: With A Brief Outline Of The Language And Literature, A Selection From](#)

[\[PDF\] Pictorial Narrative In Ancient Greek Art](#)

[\[PDF\] Weaving Music Into Young Minds](#)

[\[PDF\] An Introduction To Banach Space Theory](#)

[\[PDF\] Kitty Kantilla](#)

[\[PDF\] 19th International Symposium On Computer Architecture And High Performance Computing: Proceedings 24](#)

[\[PDF\] The Spanish Socialist Party: A History Of Factionalism](#)